THE CHARLESTON MARKET.

[SOM THE WRIE ENDING THURSDAY SYMMEG, NOV. 8.] COTTON.—The weather during the past week reached a temperature which has probably given the Cotton plant throughout the South an loy embrace, which will extinguish the stope of an extension of the crop from a prolonged continuance of a moderate season. For many weeks, however, the weather has been extremely favorable in most sections for collecting the staple, and much on of the limited yield will be sent to market in good condition. The receipts at this point for the week amount to viii 8096 bales, the exports to 3638 bales, and the sales to 3472 bales. The demand since our last has been good, purchasers generally taking freely most of the Cotton offered. Prices have been quite regular, the rates at the ncement of the week having been for Low Middling 34@35c.; Middling 36, and Strict Middling 37c. $ ib., which varied but slightly from those prevailing at the closing of our report yesterday. The annexed statement will goe the daily character of the market:

On Friday, the 2d inst., there was a fair demand with firm prices and an upward tendency in the staple, the being about 750 bales.

On Saturday holders were more anxious to meet buyers, and prices were not so firm as the day before, but the sales, which amounted to 429 bales, were at rates sufficiently full to prevent an alteration of quotations. On Monday there was an active and improving market, buyers taking some 850 bales at rates which established an advance in most qualities of a 1/c. % ib.—Low Middling being quoted at 35c., Middling at 36@36%c., and Strict Middling at 37%c. % ib.

On Tuesday, with a firm market and good demand, the lower qualities of the staple hardened up in price about a %c. $ 1b., buyers taking some 653 bales—Low Middling being quoted at 38c., Middling at 37c., and Strict Mid-

On Wednesday buyers were not anxious to operate, which caused rather a weaker market, and led in some cases to the acceptance of easier rates, with sales of 490 bales. Quotations, however, continued without alteration Yosterday, under adverse reports from Liverpool and New York, the market feil off about a %c. $ 15., the decline being most marked in the lower grades. The sales were about 300 bales, viz: 11 at 29, 4 at 31, 19 at 32, 29 at 34, 21 at 35%, 141 at 36, 22 at 36%, 3 at 37, 35 at 38, and 8 bales Silk Cotton at 40 cents $ tb. We quote quite liberal, amounting to 420 bales. There has continued to be a fair inquiry, particularly Island, of which there is only a limited operations of the week, which amount to ab	aupply	. Th
